

Content Licence

=====

Version/Revision 2 - 12/06/23

We refers to TrackTech Media Group, you refers to the user.

You are free to use Creator Hub assets (images, gameplay footage and music) in your content, with some limitations.

Credit:

The licence allows for free use of content with credit. You must, whenever using our assets, credit us using the correct format as presented to you when downloading. Failure either to credit or to use the correct format violates this policy.

Commercial Use:

Creator Hub content can be used in monetised content but cannot be monetised itself. This means you cannot sell our images, gameplay footage, or music.

Violating the Licence:

If you are find to violate either of the two policies, we will attempt to notify you through email or social media. Afterwards you will have 4 days to take action and resolve the licence violation. If this does not happen, further action mat be taken, which may include but is not limited to: DMCA's and similar takedown requests.

5. Revisions/Updates

TrackTech Media Group may updates these terms at any time. Updates regarding these terms will be posted on our communication channels at least 2 weeks before they take effect. It is your responsibility to keep up to date with these, and failure to do so will not be tolerated as an excuse for violations of the revised version.
